SUBJECT: GLOBAL INITIATIVE TO COMBAT NUCLEAR TERRORISM
DEMARCHE DELIVERED

REF: STATE 198296

¶1. (SBU) Poloff and Russian counterpart delivered reftel to Hughes de Longevialle, French deputy coordinator for the Global Initiative to Combat Nuclear Terrorism. Longevialle welcomed the various papers and agreed to initiate an interagency process to develop possible French proposals for the plan of work and to examine the draft agenda. While he was not confident they would accomplish this before December 18, he assured us that the GOF would respond as soon as possible.

¶2. (SBU) Longevialle expressed gratitude for the Points of Contact list and informed us that the GOF would be creating a technical point of contact for the Global Initiative and would keep us updated.

¶3. (SBU) After briefly examining the agenda item concerning proposals for additional partner nations, Longevialle remarked that France and other EU countries remained interested in discussing the possibility of the EU's participation. He added that an EU strategy to combat nuclear terrorism was already in existence, and that the EU could contribute substantively to the plan of work.
